

- 27 The photoelectric effect is seen when an incident beam of light of constant frequency releases electrons from a target.

Which quantity is affected by the intensity of the incident beam?

- A average kinetic energy of the electrons
- B maximum speed of the electrons
- C number of electrons released per unit time
- D work function energy of the target

