

23 What is the value of the potential gradient at a point in an electric field?

- A the electrical potential energy of a unit positive charge at that point
- B the electric field strength at that point
- C the force acting on a unit negative charge at that point
- D the work done to move unit negative charge from infinity to that point