

- 17 Two waves of the same frequency, one having twice the amplitude of the other, are superposed. At point P, the waves are in phase. At point Q, they have a phase difference of π radians.

What is the ratio $\frac{\text{intensity at point P}}{\text{intensity at point Q}}$?

A 9

B 4

C 3

D 2

