

18 What is found using the Rayleigh criterion?

- A the angular position of the first maxima in single slit diffraction
- B the angular position of the first maxima produced by a diffraction grating
- C the resolving power of a diffraction grating
- D the resolving power of a single aperture

19 Two wires made of the same material but of different diameters are connected in a circuit so that