

- 18 A longitudinal wave travels along a stretched spring. The graph below shows the displacement to the right from equilibrium of the coils against position along the spring at one instant as the wave is passing from left to right.

At which point on the graph is there a compression in the spring?

