

- 10 Two forces act on a small object. The forces are accurately represented, in direction and magnitude, by the arrows shown.

The arrows are to scale and represent the direction and magnitude of the forces.

Which arrow represents the force that would also need to be applied to the object so that it is in equilibrium?

A

B

C

D

