

16 Polarisation can be demonstrated using radio waves because they are

- A high frequency electromagnetic waves.
- B low frequency electromagnetic waves.
- C longitudinal waves.
- D transverse waves.