

23 Which statement describes the electric field due to an isolated positive point charge?

- A The direction of the electric field is towards the charge.
- B The magnitude of the electric field strength increases with distance from the charge.
- C The electric field lines around the charge are circular.
- D The magnitude of the electric field strength is equal at equal distances from the charge.