

7 A golf ball is hit into the air and lands on level ground some distance away.

Which quantity relating to the ball during its flight cannot be constant?

Air resistance is negligible.

- A the acceleration
- B the horizontal component of velocity
- C the rate of change of the vertical component of velocity
- D the total kinetic energy