

remains constant along uniform electric field lines.

25. Answer: A

The resultant electric field at each position can be represented by determining the vector sum of the electric field strengths due to the 4 point charges at that position. This will show that the direction of the field is downwards at all 4 positions.

26. Answer: D