

Answer: B

24 $F=qE$

If E increases, F increases

$F=ma$, hence downward vertical acceleration a increases.

Therefore vertical downward speed also increases, leading to a greater deflection of the parabolic path.

Answer: B

25 $R = \frac{V}{I}$ R decreases for $V = 0.6V$