

- 6 Applying the principle of flotation,
Weight of barge, W = Upthrust exerted by water on barge, U
Applying Archimedes' principle,
 U = Weight of water displaced by barge = W which is the same before the barge is on the bridge and when it is on the bridge.

Answer: A

- 7 Let A = area of cross section of ice, L = length of ice, h = length of ice submerged in