

Answer: C

- 40 Since the graph of Y is symmetrical to that of X, it can be observed that one nuclide X decays to form 1 nuclide Y. At time T , the number of nuclides X and Y are the same, which means that half of the initial number of X has already decayed to Y. This means that time T is the half-life τ .

Answer: C