

Answer: D

- 9 The skier has to be in equilibrium. Therefore, the lines of action of the gravitational force acting on the man (through the torso), the tension in the wire and the reaction force from the slope has to intersect at one single point.

Answer: B