

		opposite forces on one another.
26	C	The electric force on the particles acts downwards. To produce a magnetic force upwards, the magnetic field must be pointing into the plane of the paper (Fleming's Left Hand Rule).
27	C	The electric force on each particle is downwards and perpendicular to the