

|           |          |                                                                                                                     |
|-----------|----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|           |          | of the mass of the satellite.                                                                                       |
| 10 | D | Gravitational potential at P,$\phi_P = -\frac{GM}{0.5d} + \left( -\frac{G4M}{0.5d} \right)$ $= -\frac{10GM}{d}$ |
| 11 | A | 1 2                                                                                                                 |