

15	D	In uniform circular motion, the satellite's velocity is constantly changing due to the constantly changing direction. The satellite is accelerating, because there is a resultant force acting in it, towards the centre of the Earth. The gravitational force on the satellite provides the centripetal force to keep the satellite in uniform circular motion around the Earth. Hence, the satellite is not in equilibrium.
16	B	mv^2