

Qn	Answer	Solution
29	A	Since momentum and de Broglie wavelength are related by the expression $p = \frac{h}{\lambda}, \quad p\lambda = h$ which is a constant. As momentum p of the charged particle increases, the product $p\lambda$ is a constant.
30	C	Root-mean-square value of alternating voltage